

AEDH membership form

The European Association for the Defense of Human Rights (AEDH) acts so that the fundamental rights of all EU residents are recognised in their universality, their indivisibility, their validity.

The aim of AEDH is to promote human rights compliance within European institutions, to encourage civil society dialogue, to take a stand, to denounce infringements, to report facts and to build a European Union of rights and equality for the 500 million people who live in the European Union.

AEDH gathers together human rights organisations from European Union Member States and associates individual members. It is an associate member of FIDH.

Being a member of AEDH means promoting...

- A democratic and transparent Europe in which citizens get a real power;
- A Europe grounded on the respect of freedom of each and every person;
- A Europe which maintains its concern for social equality, which places economic, social and cultural rights at the same level as other rights;
- A Europe respectful of the environment and engaged in sustainable development;
- A Europe without discrimination;
- A Europe open to the world and taking into account its international responsibilities.
